Three Games Slated for El Camino Cagers

Moving toward the end of the 1951 basketball season, Doug Essick's El Camino five is preparing to meet two conference foes and one non-conference team during the coming week.

On Friday, Feb. 16, the locals meet East Los Angeles in the El Camino gym. Saturday's game, against Valley, will be played away. Both contests begin at 8 p.m. Both opponents are fighting it out for the Metro conference cellar position.

Tuesday, Feb. 20, the Warriors travel to Compton for a re-match with the Western States team. In an early-season game El Camino scored a 65-68 victory of the Tartars.

Twice this season El Camino has trounced the week East Los Angeles Huskies. In the Sam Barry tournament the locals ran up a 71-48 score against the E.L.A. five, and in the first round of Metropolitan play the

New Officers of College Advisory Council Elected

New officers were elected at a luncheon meeting Thurs., Feb. 8 on the Palos Verdes College Campus in Rolling Hills of the Friends and Founders' Committee of the Palos Verdes College advisory council.

Outgoing officers are Mrs. Stuart Ripley, chairman; Mrs. Stanley Schmetzler, co-chairman; and Mrs. T. O. Cullins, secretary-treasurer.

Following lunch, Clayton Garrison of the college, presented a program of primitive and modern drama.

Huskies were massacred 66-43. Valley J. C. should provide little more opposition on Saturday night. In their first encounter the Warriors marked up a 61-35 victory.

Sleek, speedy, low-slung foreign made sport cars take the racing spotlight at Carrell Speedway Sunday afternoon (Feb. 25)

It was announced by racing director Emmett Malloy.

Well-known sportsmen of the automotive field will be in the saddle of the glistening speedsters including such sports as Phil Hill, Jack Armstrong, Basil Panzer, Cliff Bundy, Arnold Stubbs, Henry Manny, Don Parkinson and E. Forbes-Robinson.

Time trials launch the program at noon with a full assortment of events for all types and horsepower classifications get-

275 In First Aid Classes, Three Teachers Hired

With 275 persons attending First Aid classes, the School Board of Education employed three instructors at their Feb. 6 meeting.

Hired by the Board as first aid instructors were Van Dwight Crum, as of Jan. 2, 1951; Ruth Johnson Mazak, as of Feb. 1, 1951; and Muriel Nocas, as of Jan. 25, 1951.

Dorothy Howard Rhodes was employed as a secondary teacher, effective Jan. 18, 1951.

Hired as custodians (probationary) were Howard B. Bales, effective Feb. 1, 1951, for $210 a month and Clarence W. Gibson, as of Feb. 6, 1951, for $210 a month.

Two Days Remain For El Camino Registration

An enrollment exceeding that of last year was anticipated by El Camino College officials as registration for the spring semester neared an end. Final enrollment day is Friday, Feb. 16.

Registration for all day and evening classes offered will be held today, Thursday, from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and on Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Although classes have already begun, students may register this week and receive full course credit.

Last year a total of 3,214 students signed up. Late last week 3,132 had enrolled, and college officials expected this week's sign up to bring the total well above last spring's figure.

El Camino College, located at Crenshaw and Redondo Beach boulevards, offers more than 400 courses without tuition fee.

Courses are open to all high school graduates and to all persons over 18 years of age, regardless of previous schooling.

Fenwick Five Stampedes Fierman's

The Fenwick Five stampeded over the Fierman's cagers by the inflated score of 72 to 39 in the League II game played Wednesday, Feb. 7 at the Torrance High School gym of the Torrance City-L.A. County Basketball Leagues.

Dave Dougherty, high scoring Fenwick cager wished the net for 24 points, to bring his eight game total to 132 points. This puts him in good position in the race for League II High Scorers Trophy, along with Jim Halle of the Torrance Teachers. Halle also has a 132 point tally for the eight games played.

High point man for Fierman's was Paul Larsen with 11 points. The League I Zillgitt Five coming back from their unexpected defeat in last week's tussle with the Hawthorne Merchants trounced the favored Banner five by the score of 68 to 64. The game was played Wednesday, Feb. 7 at the Alondra Park Gym. Marty Acosta, with 15 points, and Cleo Goyette with 17 points sparked the Zillgitt team, while Chuck Schildmeyer (15) lead the scoring for Banner Drugs.

Camino College Students to Elect 'Sweetheart'

Five El Camino College co-eds will vie for the title of campus "Sweetheart" in a student body election to be held Wednesday, February 14. Winner of the balloting will reign at the annual "Sweetheart's Ball" to be held February 17 in the new Campus Center.
